

MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF NEW CASTLE
MINUTES
TOWN HALL – 201 DELAWARE STREET – NEW CASTLE, DE
MONDAY – JULY 2, 2001

Before the Special Council Meeting, July 2, 2001, Paul L. Cathell asked for the floor. Mr. Cathell is from Delaware Medal of Honor Historical Association (DMOHHA). He wanted Council to be aware that a medal of honor recipient Joseph E. Vantine was buried in Glebe Cemetery in New Castle. The DMOHHA is having a service on July 7, 2001 at 11:00 a.m. to place a marker on the grave of Joseph Vantine to show that he received the Medal of Honor in the U.S. Navy during the Civil War.

Second item that Mr. Cathell wanted to address was the naming of the point on Battery Park. His suggestion for a name is Holcomb Point. Then it would be possible to have the 1st Marine Division have a yearly celebration.

Respectfully submitted,

Kate Toner
